Project Efficient Apprentice

Purpose: To provide training in technical-vocational learning modality for people with disabilities

How does the project work?

Law no. 10,097 originated in Congress, as a President's initiative.

Amends provisions of the Consolidation of Labor Laws - CLT relating to vocational training and to young people work.

Defines as apprentice the employee between 14 and 24 years old (to learners with disabilities, the limit of 24 years does not apply), that is a student of elementary or high school that will receive vocational and technical training. The apprentice must be enrolled in apprenticeship programs, which may be offered by National learning Systems, or technical schools and non-governmental organizations. The apprentice must also be registered with their professional training programs and they must be approved by the Municipal Council for the Rights of Children and Adolescents .

The Young Apprentice Project aims to fulfill the request of the companies that need to comply with the requirements of the Ministry of Labour - contained in Law no. 10 097 of December 19th, 2000, whose content of article 429 of the Labor Code says that "establishments of any kind are required to employ and enroll at least a five percent of apprentices, and fifteen percent at most of the total number of workers."

Each apprentice that is hired by the Company receives a scholarship.
The institution is responsible for the qualification of the apprentice. There is a schedule of the apprenticeship program to follow the needs of each company.

Target Audience:

The Apprentice Project was created to focus on people with different disabilities.

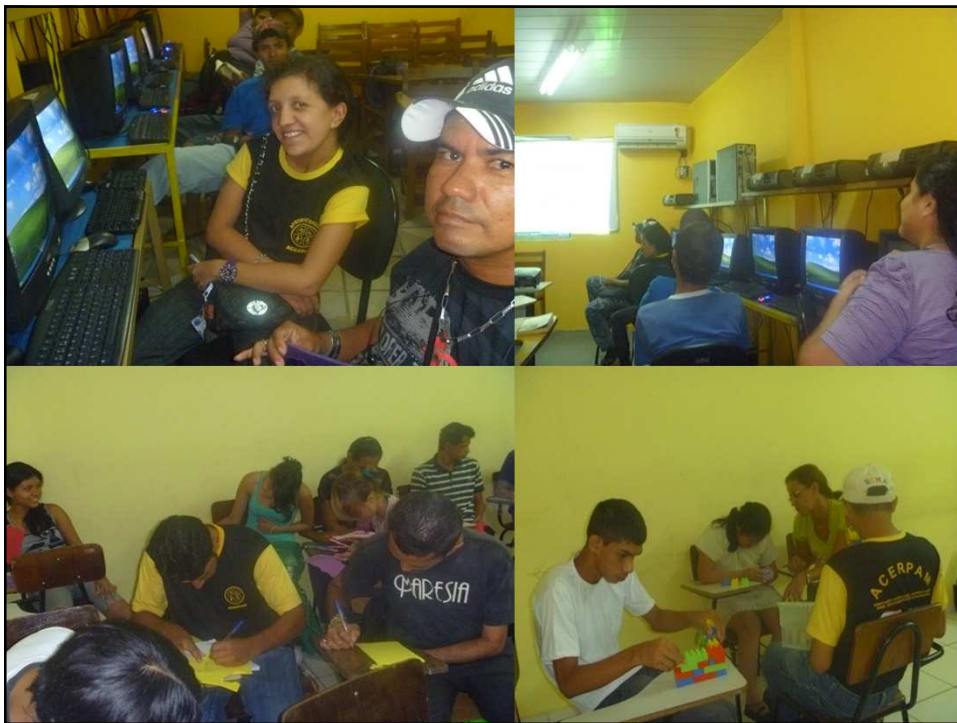

Craft's Course

It aims to generate income for people with disabilities and their families who cannot be inserted in the Labor Market.

Lectures on entrepreneurship are held during the Craft's course for students to better learn how to sell what they produce.

Among the major workshops are: newspaper's craft work with recyclables; felt; "fuxico"; basket, fabric painting, rubber and others.
